(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by the preceding sub-section, Defence Regulations may, so far as appears to His Majesty in Council to be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes mentioned in that sub-section,—

3. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section seventy-six of the Army Act a person may, during the period of the present emergency, be enlisted to serve His Majesty as a soldier of the regular forces until the end of that period.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in section eighty-three of the Army Act, a soldier of the regular forces may, during the period of the present emergency, be transferred without his consent to any corps by order of the competent military authority, if that authority considers the transfer to be expedient in the interests of the efficiency of the military forces, but where, at any time during the said period, a soldier is, in pursuance of this sub-section, transferred to any corps, then, as soon as may be convenient after the end of that period, he shall, if he continues in army service and so desires, be re-transferred to the corps in which he was serving at the time when he was first so transferred.

(3) Where, during the period of the present emergency, a soldier is transferred as aforesaid, then, if the transfer is authorized both by the last preceding sub-section and by section eighty-three of the Army Act, the soldier shall be deemed to have been so transferred in pursuance of that sub-section and not in pursuance of that section

(4) At any time during the period of the present emergency a soldier of the regular forces may, by order of the competent military authority, be released from army service; and, so long as the order remains in force, he shall be in the position in which he would be if no proclamation ordering the army reserve to be called out on permanent service were in force, and he had, at the time of the making of the order, been duly transferred to that reserve.

(5) Any order under the last preceding sub-section may be revoked by the competent military authority, and, on revoking such an order, the said authority may, if the term of service of the person with respect to whom the order was made has not expired, give directions requiring him to re-enter upon army service and to attend at the place and time fixed by those directions.

45 & 46 Vict. c. 49. For the purposes of section fifteen of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882 (which provides for the punishment of a person failing to appear at any time and place at which he is required to attend upon the calling out of the army reserve on permanent service), any such directions as aforesaid given with respect to any person shall have effect as if they were directions calling him out on permanent service in pursuance of a proclamation under section twelve of that Act.

(6) Nothing in this section shall apply in relation to the enlistment of a person for service in the Royal Marine forces, or to a person serving in those forces

The territorial army. 7 Edw. 7, c. 9 4. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, any embodied part of the territorial army and any officer or man belonging to an embodied part thereof shall, during the present period of embodiment, be liable to be ordered to go out of, and liable to be carried out of, the United Kingdom; and at any time during that period any man belonging to an embodied part of the territorial army may, by order of the competent military authority,—

(a) be transferred without his consent to any corps, and

(b) be posted without his consent to any regiment, battalion or other military body within the corps to which he has been appointed or to which he may have been transferred:

Provided that where, in the case of any such officer or man appointed or enlisted before the beginning of the said period, an undertaking has been given as to the conditions of his service, that undertaking shall be observed, unless he has agreed to the contrary, and, in particular,—

(i) no such officer or man so appointed or enlisted shall be ordered to go out of, or be carried out, of, the United Kingdom, unless he has signed an agreement accepting liability for service outside the United Kingdom; and

(ii) in relation to a man so enlisted who, at the time of his enlistment, signed an agreement relating to the corps or units to which he would be liable to be transferred, posted or attached, this sub-section shall not authorise the doing, without his consent, of anything not contemplated by the agreement.

(2) Where, by virtue of the preceding sub-section, a person has been transferred to any corps or posted to any regiment, battalion or other military body, whether in the same corps or not, that, if he continues in territorial army service and so desires, there shall, as soon as may be convenient after the end of the present period of embodiment, be taken all such steps as are necessary to enable him to serve again in the corps, and in the regiment, battalion or other military body (if any), in which he was serving at the time when he was first so transferred or posted, as the case may be.

(3) Orders and regulations made under section seven of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, may, notwithstanding anything in that section or in section nine of that Act, provide that any man enlisted in the territorial army during the present period of embodiment—

(a) may be enlisted for general service,

(b) may be enlisted to serve until the end of the period of embodiment, whether or not the period for which he serves under the enlistment exceeds four years, and

(c) may, on enlistment, be appointed without his consent to such corps as the competent military authority may determine;

and any order or regulations providing as aforesaid may be made in reply to men of the territorial army enlisted during the present period of embodiment notwithstanding that they were enlisted before the coming into operation of the order or regulations.

(4) At any time during the present period of embodiment any officer or man belonging to an embodied part of the territorial army may, by order of the competent military authority, be released from the obligations which he is under by reason of the embodiment of that part of the territorial army, and, so long as the order remains in force, he shall be in the position in which he would be if that part of the territorial army were not embodied.

Any such order may be revoked by the competent military authority

(5) On revoking an order under the last preceding sub-section, the competent military authority may, if the person with respect to whom the order was made is still an officer or man of the territorial army, give directions requiring him to attend at the place and time fixed by those directions, and, for the purposes of section twenty of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907 (which provides for the punishment of a person failing to appear at the time and place appointed for assembling on embodiment), those directions shall have effect as if they were directions under section seventeen of that Act directing the embodiment of a part of the territorial army to which that person belonged

(6) For the purposes of this section, the expression "the present period of embodiment" means the period of embodiment of the territorial army current at the date of the passing of this Act or, if no such period is then current, the first period for which the territorial army is embodied after that date.

(7) In this section the expression "regiment, battalion or other military body" includes any regiment, battalion or other military body of the regular forces.

Airmen of regular air force and air force reserve. 5. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section seventy-six of the Air Force Act or in section four of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, as applied to the air force reserve, a person may, during the period of the present emergency, be enlisted to serve His Majesty as an airman of the regular air force or of the air force reserve until the end of that period

(2) At any time during the period of the present emergency an airman of the regular air force may, by order of the competent air force authority, be released from air force service; and, so long as the order remains in force, he shall be in the position in which he would be if no proclamation ordering the air force reserve to be called out on permanent service were in force, and he had, at the time of the making of the order, been duly transferred to that reserve.

(3) Any order under the last preceding sub-section may be revoked by the competent air force authority; and on revoking such an order the said authority may, if the term of service of the person with respect to whom the order was made has not expired, give directions requiring him to re-enter upon air force service and to attend at the time and place fixed by those directions.

For the purposes of section fifteen of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, as applied to the air force reserve, any such directions as aforesaid given with respect to any person shall have effect as if they were directions calling him out on permanent service in pursuance of a proclamation under section twelve of that Act, as so applied.

The auxiliary air force. 6. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, as applied to the auxiliary air force, any embodied part of the auxiliary air force and any officer or man belonging to an embodied part thereof shall, during the present period of embodiment, be liable to be ordered to go out of, and liable to be carried out of, the United Kingdom.

(2) At any time during the present period of embodiment any officer or man belonging to an embodied part of the auxiliary air force may, by order of the competent air force authority, be released from the obligations which he is under by reason of the embodiment of that part of the auxiliary air force; and so long as the order remains in force, he shall be in the position in which he would be if that part of the auxiliary air force were not embodied.

Any such order may be revoked by the competent air force authority.

(3) On revoking an order under the last preceding sub-section, the competent air force authority may, if the person with respect to whom the order was made is still an officer or man of the auxiliary air force, give directions requiring him to attend at the place and time fixed by those directions, and for the purposes of section twenty of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, as applied to the auxiliary air force, those directions shall have effect as if they were directions under section seventeen of that Act, as so applied, directing the embodiment of a part of the auxiliary air force to which that person belonged.

(4) For the purposes of this section the expression "the present period of embodiment" means the period of embodiment of the auxiliary air force current at the date of the passing of this Act, or, if no such period is then current, the first period for which the auxiliary air force is embodied after that date.

THE SHIPS AND AIRCRAFT (TRANSFER RESTRICTION) ACT, 1939

(2 & 3 Geo. 6 Ch. 70)

CHAPTER 70.

An Act to impose restrictions on certain transactions in respect of ships and aircraft and parts of aircraft; and for purposes connected with the matter aforesaid.

[1st September 1939.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Restriction on transfer and mortgage of ships.

1. (1) It shall be unlawful, except under the sanction of the Board of Trade —

(a) to transfer any ship to which this Act applies or any share in such a ship, or

(b) to mortgage any such ship or any share therein, or to transfer a mortgage of any such ship or share:

and if any person purports to effect any transfer or mortgage which is unlawful by virtue of this sub-section, then, in addition to the transfer or mortgage being void, he shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any ship or share in a ship which has been the subject of any transaction unlawful by virtue of this section shall be subject to forfeiture, and accordingly section seventy-six of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, as amended by any subsequent enactment (which section prescribes the procedure for the forfeiture of ships) shall apply in relation to ships which have become subject to forfeiture under this section, as it applies in relation to ships which have become subject to forfeiture under Part I of that Act.

Restriction on transfer of registry of ships.

2 Notwithstanding anything in section fifty-three of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, an application made (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) for the transfer of the registry of a ship to which this Act applies from any port at which the ship is registered for the time being, shall not be granted except with the approval of the Board of Trade.

Restriction on certain transactions in respect of aircraft and parts of aircraft.

3. (1) It shall be unlawful, except under the sanction of the Secretary of State, to sell, transfer or let on hire (whether under charter or otherwise), or to do anything involving the creation of a charge on,—

(a) any aircraft to which this Act applies, or

(b) any airframe, aero-engine or aircrew which is within any country or territory to which this Act extends;

and if any person purports to effect any transaction which is unlawful by virtue of this section, then, in addition to the transaction being void, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Provided that the provisions of this section restricting transactions in respect of airframes, aero-engines and aircrews shall not avoid, or render a person punishable in respect of, any transaction relating to an aircraft to which this Act does not apply, by reason only that any airframe forming part of the aircraft, or any aero-engine or aircrew installed therein, is within a country or territory to which this Act extends.

(2) This section shall come into operation on such date as the Secretary of State may by order appoint.

Ships and aircraft to which this Act applies.

4 (1) The ships to which this Act applies are—

(i) which are registered in, or licensed under the law of, any colony or British protectorate or any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Majesty and is being exercised by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, or

(ii) which, in pursuance of an Order in Council under section eighty-eight of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, are regulated at any port within which His Majesty exercises jurisdiction in accordance with the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890. 53 & 54 Vict. c. 37.

(2) The aircraft to which this Act applies are—

(b) all other aircraft being aircraft which are within any of the countries and territories referred to in paragraph (a) of this sub-section, and have at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) been registered in any of the said countries and territories, and are not for the time being either registered—

(i) in a Dominion, or

(ii) in any territory administered by His Majesty's Government in a Dominion, or

(iii) in India, Burma or Southern Rhodesia, or registered in a register of any foreign State.

The reference in paragraph (a) of the sub-section to any colony shall be construed as a reference to any colony except Southern Rhodesia or a colony administered by His Majesty's Government in a Dominion.

Offences by corporations.

5. Where a person convicted of an offence under this Act is a body corporate, every person who, at the time of the commission of the offence, was a director or an officer of the body corporate shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence, unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

Penalties and legal proceedings.

6. (1) Any person guilty of an offence under this Act shall be liable—

(a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or to both such imprisonment and a fine, or

(4) In any proceedings a document purporting to state that a sanction or approval has been given under this Act, and to be signed on behalf of the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade, as the case may be, or by a person who is empowered by this Act to do anything which may be done thereunder by the Board, shall be evidence of the facts stated in the document.

Incidental provisions as to sanctions and approvals.

7. For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that any sanction or approval under this Act may be given either generally or in relation to a particular case; and any such sanction or approval may be given on such terms, and subject to such conditions, as may be determined by the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade

Power to impose charges.

8. (1) The Treasury may by order authorise the making of such charges as may be specified in the order in respect of the giving of any sanction under section one or section three of this Act, and any such order may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order of the Treasury.

(2) Any such order as aforesaid shall be laid before the Commons House of Parliament as soon as may be after it is made, but, notwithstanding anything in sub-section (3) of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893 shall be deemed not to be a statutory rule to which that section applies.

54 & 57 Vict. c. 66.

(3) Any such order as aforesaid imposing or increasing a charge shall cease to have effect on the expiration of the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the day on which the order is made, unless at some time before the expiration of that period it has been approved by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament, without prejudice however, to the validity of anything previously done under the order or to the making of a new order

In reckoning any period of twenty-eight days for the purposes of this sub-section no account shall be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which the Commons House is adjourned for more than four days

(4) Without prejudice to the preceding provisions of this section, there may be charged in respect of the giving of any sanction under this Act, or in respect of the approving under this Act of any transfer of the registry of a ship, such fee, not exceeding five pounds, as the Secretary of State or the Board of Trade may with the approval of the Treasury determine

(5) All sums received by virtue of this section or of an order made thereunder shall be paid into the Exchequer of the United Kingdom.

Exercise of powers of Secretary of State and Board of Trade.

9. (1) The Secretary of State and the Board of Trade may respectively make arrangements whereby any sanction or approval which may be given under this Act by the Secretary of State or the Board is given on his or their behalf outside the United Kingdom by such persons, and at such places, as the Secretary of State or the Board may determine, and any sanction or approval given in pursuance of such arrangements shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be a sanction or approval given by the Secretary of State or the Board, as the case may be.

(2) Anything required or authorized under this Act to be done by, to or before the Board of Trade may (without prejudice to any arrangements in force under the preceding sub-section) be done by, to or before the President of the Board, any secretary, under-secretary or assistant secretary of the Board or any person authorised in that behalf by the President.

Extra-territorial operation of penal provisions of Act.

10. (2) This Act shall, in its application to any country or territory outside the United Kingdom, have effect subject to such adaptations and modifications, if any, as may be prescribed by or under an Order of His Majesty in Council, and any such Order may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Order of His Majesty in Council.

CHAPTER 89.

An Act to impose penalties for trading with the enemy, to make provision as respects the property of enemies and enemy subjects, and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid.

[5th September 1939.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Trading with the Enemy and matters relating thereto.

Penalties for trading with the enemy.

1. (1) Any person who trades with the enemy within the meaning of this Act shall be guilty of an offence of trading with the enemy, and shall be liable—

(a) on conviction on indictment, to penal servitude for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine or to both such penal servitude and a fine, or

(b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds, or to both such imprisonment and such fine;

and the court may in any case order that any goods or money in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be forfeited.

(2) For the purposes of this Act a person shall be deemed to have traded with the enemy—

(a) if he has had any commercial, financial or other intercourse or dealings with, or for the benefit of, an enemy, and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, if he has—

(i) supplied any goods to or for the benefit of an enemy, or obtained any goods from an enemy, or traded in, or carried, any goods consigned to or from an enemy or destined for or coming from enemy territory, or

(ii) paid or transmitted any money, negotiable instrument or security for money to or for the benefit of an enemy or to a place in enemy territory, or

(iii) performed any obligation to, or discharged any obligation of, an enemy, whether the obligation was undertaken before or after the commencement of this Act; or

(b) if he has done anything which, under the following provisions of this Act, is to be treated as trading with the enemy:

Provided that a person shall not be deemed to have traded with the enemy by reason only that he has—

(i) done anything under an authority given generally or specially by, or by any person authorized in that behalf by, a Secretary of State, the Treasury or the Board of Trade, or

(ii) received payment from an enemy of a sum of money due in respect of a transaction under which all obligations on the part of the person receiving payment had been performed before the commencement of the war by reason of which the person from whom the payment was received became an enemy.

(3) Any reference in this section to an enemy shall be construed as including a reference to a person acting on behalf of an enemy.

(4) A prosecution for an offence of trading with the enemy shall not be instituted in England or Northern Ireland except by or with the consent of, the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Attorney-General for Northern Ireland, as the case may be:

Provided that this sub-section shall not prevent the arrest or the issue or execution of a warrant for the arrest, of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remanding, in custody or on bail, of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of a prosecution for the offence has not been obtained.

Definition of expression "enemy."

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the expression "enemy" for the purposes of this Act means—

(a) any State or Sovereign of a State, at war with His Majesty,

(b) any individual resident in enemy territory,

(c) any body of persons (whether corporate or unincorporate) carrying on business in any place, if and so long as the body is controlled by a person who, under this section, is an enemy, or

(d) any body of persons constituted or incorporated in, or under the laws of, a State at war with His Majesty; but does not include any person by reason only that he is an enemy subject.

(2) The Board of Trade may by order direct that any person specified in the order shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be, while so specified, an enemy.

Inspection and supervision of businesses.

3. (1) The Board of Trade, if they think it expedient for securing compliance with section 1 of this Act so to do, may by written order authorize a specified person (hereafter in this section referred to as "an inspector") to inspect any books or documents belonging to, or under the control of, a person named in the order, and to require that person and any other person to give such information in his possession with respect to any business carried on by the named person as the inspector may demand, and for the purposes aforesaid to enter on any premises used for the purposes of that business.

(2) If, on a report made by an inspector as respects any business, it appears to the Board of Trade that it is expedient, for securing compliance with section 1 of this Act, that the business should be subject to supervision, the Board may appoint a person (hereafter in this section referred to as "a supervisor") to supervise the business, with such powers as the Board may determine.

(3) If any person, without reasonable cause, fails to produce for inspection, or furnish to an inspector or a supervisor any document or information which he is duly required by the inspector or supervisor to produce or furnish, that person shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(4) If any person, with intent to evade the provisions of this section, destroys, mutilates or defaces any book or other document which an inspector or a supervisor is or may be authorized under this section to inspect, that person shall be liable—

(a) on conviction on indictment to penal servitude for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine or to both such penal servitude and a fine, or

(b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

Transfer of negotiable instruments and choses in action by enemies.

4. (1) No assignment of a chose in action made by or on behalf of an enemy shall, except with the sanction of the Treasury, be effective so as to confer on any person any rights or remedies in respect of the chose in action, and neither a transfer of a negotiable instrument by or on behalf of an enemy, nor any subsequent transfer thereof, shall, except with the sanction of the Treasury, be effective so as to confer any rights or remedies against any party to the instrument.

(2) The preceding sub-section shall apply to relation to any transfer of any coupon or other security transferable by delivery, not being a negotiable instrument, as it applies in relation to any assignment of a chose in action.

(3) If any person by payment or otherwise purports to discharge any liability from which he is relieved by this section knowing the facts by virtue of which he is so relieved, he shall be deemed to have thereby traded with the enemy:

Provided that in any proceedings for an offence of trading with the enemy which are taken by virtue of this sub-section it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove that at the time when he purported to discharge the liability in question he had reasonable grounds for believing that the liability was enforceable against him by order of a competent court, not being rather a court having jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or a court of a State at war with His Majesty and would be enforced against him by such an order.

(4) Where a claim in respect of a negotiable instrument or chose in action is made against any person who has reasonable cause to believe that, if he satisfied the claim, he would be thereby committing an offence of trading with the enemy, that person may pay into the High Court or Court of Session any sum which, but for the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section, would be due in respect of the claim, and thereupon that sum shall, subject to rules of court, be dealt with according to any order of the Court and the payment shall for all purposes be a good discharge to that person.

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to securities to which the next following section applies.

Transfer and allotment of securities.

5. (1) If—

(a) any securities to which this section applies are transferred by or on behalf of an enemy, or

(b) any such securities, being securities issued by a company within the meaning of the Companies Act, 1929, or any corresponding enactment in force in Northern Ireland, are allotted or transferred to, or for the benefit of, an enemy subject without the consent of the Board of Trade;

19 and 20 Geo. 5. c. 23.

then, except with the sanction of the Board of Trade, the transferee or allottee shall not by virtue of the transfer or allotment, have any rights or remedies in respect of the securities; and no body corporate by whom the securities were issued or are managed shall take any cognisance of, or otherwise act upon, any such transfer except under the authority of the Board.

(2) No share warrants, stock certificates or bonds, being warrants, certificates or bonds payable to bearer, shall be issued in respect of any securities to which this section applies, being securities registered or inscribed in the name of an enemy or of a person acting on behalf of, or for the benefit of, an enemy

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

(4) This section applies to the following securities, that is to say, annuities, stock, shares, bonds, debentures or debenture stock registered or inscribed in any register, branch register or other book kept in the United Kingdom

Purchase of enemy currency.

6. (1) Purchasing enemy currency shall be treated as trading with the enemy.

(2) In this section the expression "enemy currency" means any such notes or coins as circulate as currency in any area under the sovereignty of a Power with whom His Majesty is at war, not being an area in the occupation of His Majesty or of a Power allied with His Majesty, or any such other notes or coins as are for the time being declared by an order of the Treasury to be enemy currency.

Property of Enemies and Enemy Subjects.

Collection of enemy money and custody of enemy property.

7. (1) With a view to preventing the payment of money to enemies and of preserving enemy property in contemplation of arrangements to be made at the conclusion of peace, the Board of Trade may appoint custodians of enemy property for England, Scotland and Northern Ireland respectively, and may by order—

Revocation of powers of the promoters of the Kulaschkarapatnam Light Railway.

Fort St. George, November 7, 1939

No. 6.

The following Government Order is published—

G.O. No. 2380, P.W. (RAILWAYS), DATED 1st NOVEMBER 1939.

The Kulaschkarapatnam Light Railway (tramway), connects Tuticorin and Tiruchendur in the Tinnevelly district. Its construction and maintenance for public traffic by the East Indian Distilleries and Sugar Factories, Limited, promoters of the tramway, was authorised by Government in January 1922 under sections 6 and 8 of the Indian Tramways Act, 1886 (XI of 1886). Subsequently, in 1928, an extension of the tramway from Kulaschkarapatnam to Udangudi was constructed by the same promoters on the authority of another tramway order issued by Government under the Act.

2 Owing to fall in traffic and other causes, the promoters towards the end of December 1936, decided to sell the undertaking as it was working at a loss. Negotiations between them and one Sri W. Ponniah Pillai of Trichinopoly, resulted in an agreement for the purchase of the undertaking by the latter. The transfer was approved by Government in July 1937, but the transaction failed. Subsequently, a similar transaction with one Sri D. K. Raju of Ramnadhapuram in Ramnad district, also fell through. On 19th January 1939, the promoters communicated to the Government their intention to close the Tuticorin-Tiruchendur section with effect from the 20th February 1939. As regards the Udangudi-Kulaschkarapatnam extension, they gave three months' notice to the public of their intention to close it also under clause 16 of the Tramway order, dated 12th December 1928. The promoters were then informed by the Government that as regards the former line, steps action had to be taken under section 8 of the Act, the procedure prescribed in sections 4 and 5 thereof would have to be followed and they were therefore asked to forward their application through the Local authority, i.e., the Tinnevelly District Board, for a further order of revocation of the earlier tramway order. They were also told that the line should not be closed until such further order was issued. As such an obligation to apply to Government through the Local authority did not exist in regard to the above-mentioned extension, the promoters closed it on 1st May 1939 after notifying the public of such intention on 1st February 1939.

3 On the application for closure of the main line being submitted by the promoters through the district board, as required by sections 8 (1) and (4) of the Act, the district board first protested against the closure and desired to continue the service, uninterrupted either as its own undertaking, or one subsidised by it. The Board wanted a year to work out details, prepare valuation statements of the properties of the undertaking and settle other cognate matters for financing and working the undertaking and requested that, till then the service might be continued by the promoters. The promoters, on being asked by the Government, declined to postpone the closure of the line, as it continued to work at a loss and as the district board had sufficient time to come to a decision on the matter. A committee of the district board had meanwhile been appointed. It inspected the line, stock and etc., and advised against the district board taking it over or subsidising others for the purpose. The district board has accordingly dropped the idea of maintaining the tramway service and is formulating proposals for improving the road communications in the area served by the tramway line.

4 His Excellency the Governor is accordingly pleased to direct the publication of the annexed notification in the Fort St. George and the Tinnevelly District Gazettes.

5 The attention of the Collector of Tinnevelly is drawn to section 7 (2) (b) of the Act and he is requested to report, through the Board of Revenue, to the Government in the Revenue Department, the conditions under which the promoters are holding the lands occupied by the tramway line and its extension (since removed) and to submit, after the main line is closed, proposals for the resumption and disposal of the lands, if they had been either acquired by Government, or were at the disposal of Government and alienated to the promoters for the sole purpose of the tramway.

6. Orders will issue separately in the Local Administration Department on the request of the Tinnevelly District Board for a half grant for the construction of the roads from Udangudi to Paramankurichi and from Mudalur to Paduckapathu.

ANNEXURE.

NOTIFICATION

The following draft of a further order which it is proposed to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 of the Indian Tramways Act, 1886, (XI of 1886), is hereby published for general information.

Notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 10th December 1939 and that any objection or suggestion which any person may desire to make with respect to the proposed order will, if submitted to the Government of Madras on or before the said date, be received and considered.

DRAFT FURTHER ORDER.

Whereas the Government of Madras in their Order issued as G.O. No. 27, L. & M., dated the 4th January 1922, authorised the construction by the East India Distilleries and Sugar Factories, Limited, promoters of the Kulaschkarapatnam Light Railway of a tramway between Tuticorin and Tiruchendur;

And whereas in pursuance of the said Order the said promoters constructed a tramway and have been running carriages on it for transport;

And whereas application has now been made by the said promoters to the Government of Madras for revocation of the said order by a further order.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 of the Indian Tramways Act, 1886 (XI of 1886), His Excellency the Governor of Madras is hereby pleased to revoke the said Order of the Government of Madras issued in G.O. No. 27, L. & M., dated the 4th January 1922.

Students of the Madras Presidency—and of the Indian States whose colleges are affiliated to the Madras University—who contemplate going to England or other countries for further study, and relatives and friends of those who have already gone, are invited to correspond with the Secretary, Room No. 6, New University Buildings, Chepauk, Madras, from whom all necessary information can be obtained.

As all private applications from students must direct to the Educational Adviser in London or be Educational authorities in Great Britain are forwarded to the Secretary of the Madras University Students' Information Bureau for his enquiry and recommendation, much inconvenience and delay will be saved for students by their getting into touch with the Secretary at Madras.

The Bureau maintains a small library consisting of the prospectuses, syllabuses and calendars of educational institutions and Universities in Great Britain, America and other countries, and students and other enquirers will be allowed the use of the library on all week days—excepting holidays—between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Candidates seeking advice from the Secretary of the University Students' Information Bureau, may interview him by previous appointment between 4 and 5 p.m. on working days in the New University Buildings, Chepauk, and at other times at the Government Muhammadan College, Mount Road, Madras.

2. The wood has been classified according to the classes noted above. Intending purchasers are advised to inspect in advance, the lots put up for sale, but they must accept the classification made in the depot as final.

3. The various classes have been stored in the sandalwood godown in lots of 10, 15 and 20 tons for convenience, but the lots so exposed will not constitute an actual lot for which bids will be accepted. Each class of wood will be offered for sale separately in lots of 20, 15 or 10 tons or less if convenient, each lots merely consisting of a certain quantity of the class of wood then being sold. Bids will be per ton of each class of wood.

The bids shall be advanced in multiples of Rs. 5 per ton and not less.

4. The sale will be subject to confirmation by the Conservator of Forests, Salem Circle, who does not bind himself to accept the highest or any bid.

5. Before being allowed to bid, each intending bidder must pay an earnest money deposit of Rs. 1,000. If paid in cash immediately before the sale, this should preferably be in the form of Madras notes for Rs. 1,000 or Rs. 500. A receipted Government treasury chalan for the amount will also be accepted. In the case of intending bidders, who have previously bought sandalwood from the Forest department, a cheque on the Imperial Bank of India for the amount will be accepted, but the discretion to accept such cheques rests entirely with the officer conducting the sale. The amount (the earnest money deposit) will be retained as security for the due fulfilment of the conditions 9 and 16 infra.

6. If two or more persons in partnership attend the sale with the intention of purchasing wood jointly, only one number of the partnership will be recognized for purpose of bidding and the deposit will be accepted in his name.

7. The earnest money deposit of unsuccessful bidders will be returned immediately after the sale is over, and that of successful bidders will be credited towards the first instalment of the purchase price.

8. Each purchaser shall, immediately a lot is knocked down to him, sign his name at the foot of the sale list, in the column provided for the purpose, and such signature will be held as an admission on his part of his having purchased that particular lot and of having accepted the conditions of the sale notice.

9. Immediately the sale is over, each purchaser, if his offer for any particular lot has been accepted by the Conservator of Forests, will be furnished with a memorandum showing the total amount due from him. He shall remit 25 per cent of this amount into any of the Government treasuries in the district of North Arcot or the Imperial Bank of India at Vellore or the Reserve Bank of India at Madras, within fifteen days of the confirmation of the sale and another 25 per cent before the 10th January 1940, the balance of 50 per cent less the earnest money deposit referred to in condition 5 supra, being paid on or before 24th February 1940 or against delivery, whichever is earlier. Should any purchaser fail to make the necessary remittances by the due dates the money already remitted will lapse to Government and the District Forest Officer will be at liberty to resell the wood in question at the risk of the purchaser who shall be liable for any loss, but shall not participate in any profit which may arise by the resale.

10. After 50 per cent of the entire sale value has been paid to the credit of the Forest department, delivery of the sandalwood shall be made to the purchaser provided that until full payment has been made a quantity of wood equivalent to 25 per cent of the full sale value shall remain unremoved, but paid for.

The delivery will be by full lots at a time and no lot will be delivered by portions.

11. On the purchaser's presenting chalans as proof that 50 per cent of the entire sale value has been paid, a proportion of the wood purchased will be weighed in his or his agent's presence and the quantity handed over to him as provided for in condition 10 supra. If, however, proof is produced that the entire sale value has been paid, the whole sandalwood purchased will be weighed and handed over. The purchaser must take delivery of and remove the whole of the wood sold to him on or before the 7th March 1940.

Should any excess over the quantity paid for be found in the quantity purchased when weighing at the time of delivery, the excess will be paid for by the purchaser at the rate at which it was originally purchased before effecting removal. If any one purchaser has purchased more than one lot or class and if there is any excess in one lot or class and deficit in the other, when weighing at the time of delivery on a particular day, the value of the deficit noticed calculated on the rate at which the main lot or class was sold will be adjusted towards the value of the excess quantity noticed in the other lot or class as the case may be, and the balance, if any, still due from the purchaser will be collected before permitting him to remove the quantity delivered during the day. If, however, the net quantity delivered results in a deficit on account of drying over the recorded quantity at the time of sale, the value of the deficit quantity at the purchased rate will be refunded in due course.

12. The accepted bidders, when deputing their agents to take delivery, must furnish such agent with a power-of-attorney duly stamped and bearing the signature of the person so deputed. A copy of the power-of-attorney must also be sent to the District Forest Officer by post, with four specimen signatures of the agent. Failing this, delivery may be refused pending verification, in which case the delay will count against the accepted bidder.

13. No further cleaning or classification of sandalwood will be undertaken by the Forest department nor will purchasers be allowed to clean any wood previous to weighment. The classification, cleaning and weighment as determined by the Forest department, must be accepted.

14. After the wood has once been weighed and handed over, if the purchaser fails to remove all the wood within the voidah allowed in clause 17, demurrage will be charged at the rate of Rs. 2 per ton per diem from the last date fixed for delivery until the wood is finally removed.

15. No sandalwood shall be removed from the depot till a licence to remove it signed by the officer of the Forest department, who delivered the wood, shall have been obtained and till every piece of sandalwood that can be stamped bears the department's 'sale hammer' mark.

16. The officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to stop the sale at any time without giving any reason to the intending purchasers.

17. The wood purchased by each purchaser shall be in the depot at the purchaser's risk from the date of sale until it is removed.

18. The purchaser shall bear the cost of taking delivery of sandalwood. The depot contractor will supply the required labour for taking delivery of the wood. No other persons other than those supplied by the contractor will be allowed to enter in the depot premises

19. Each intending bidder unless specially exempted by the Conservator of Forests, Salem Circle, Salem, on an application made in writing at least fifteen days before the date of sale, must produce a solvency certificate specifying the maximum up to which he is solvent signed by a responsible Revenue Officer of the district in which he resides; and the District Forest Officer holding the sale may refuse to allow any bidder not so exempted to bid beyond the amount guaranteed in such certificates. In lieu of the solvency certificate the bidders may deposit cash with the officer conducting the sale and they will be permitted to bid up to the value of cash deposited.

20. The purchaser should give at least seven days' notice of his intention to take delivery, to the District Forest Officer, Vellore West, Tiruppattur, supported by bank remittance in token of payment. No delivery will be made on Holidays.

21. Any supplementary conditions that may be found necessary will be added and read out at the time of auction.

22. The full quantity of wood advertised for sale will not necessarily be put up to auction.

23. Further particulars can be had on application to the District Forest Officer, Vellore West Division, Tiruppattur, North Arcot.
